PAST EVENTS

Fall Fest:

On October 22nd, the Association Council for Bice and the Language Houses (Xara, Priscilla, Annie, Aurora, Maitri, and Sarah) sponsored the BiceLingual Fall Fest. The festivities were hosted in Garden and included pumpkins to paint, free food from Qdoba and Mezeh Mediterranean Grill, apple cider, and a photo booth to top off the fun!

K-Floor Noraebang:

This month, the Korean Language Pod hosted their semester event. The Korean LA Joe Chey says, "The participants were able to enjoy singing their favorite Korean songs through the "Noraebang" culture, or more commonly known as karaoke, which is a common form of socializing for both students and adults in Korea." At the event, Korean food was catered by Doma, and many learners of the Korean language got introduced to living in Shea House.

Third Floor Bonding Brunch:

On October 8th, the third floor, consisting of ASL, German, and Japanese, language pods hosted a Sunday brunch with pancakes, eggs, and bacon, to foster and encourage communication between the languages.

ONGOING EVENTS

Movie Nights:

Thank you all who came out to the second and third movie night of the semester to watch "Train to Busan" and "Where Do We Go Now?" which was hosted respectively by the Korean and Arabic floors. The next movie will be hosted by our German Language Pod on November 8th, 2017! More details on the film and time to follow. Be sure to come out to as many of our house events to receive raffle tickets to enter a lottery for a prize at the end of the year!

International Dinners:

We hope everyone enjoyed the International Dinner that happened this month. There will be another International Dinner on November 8th, 2017, where residents will be able to sit wherever they want and get to meet others outside their own Language Pod. Again, use this an opportunity to expose yourself to different cultures and become more involved with Shea House, especially if you're planning to live here next year.

REMINDER:

Shea House Applications are due November 7th, 2017.

Check the Housing portal website for more details!

LOOKING FORWARD

ASL Semester Event:

Next month, the ASL Pod will be hosting its semester event! Here are a few words from the ASL LA Christina Kim: "International Deaf Communities," will tentatively be held December 2nd or 3rd. We will discuss how, like spoken languages, sign languages are not mutually intelligible across different countries and will watch videos comparing the different sign languages, and all are welcome!" The location and exact time for this event are in the workings right now. All advertisements will get shared as we get closer to the date.

OTHER NOTES

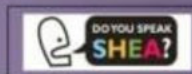

Want a new place to study? There is a new language commons area located in the newly renovated space that is New Cabell 298!
